

New 'Tub Thumper' at El Camino Appointed

Appointed as journalism and photography instructor at El Camino College is Rex Van Trees, formerly of the Indianapolis Star and the Culver City Schools, the college office disclosed this week.

He succeeds Clarence H. Vetterli, who was recently sentenced to serve six years on a conviction of perjury before the Federal Grand Jury during a 1949 Red spy quiz.

Van Trees will be in charge of college publicity and adviser to the college newspaper 'The Warhoop'. A graduate from Butler, Indiana, he served as a photographer and reporter for the Indianapolis Star. He completed work for his master's degree at the University of California at Los Angeles.

Hi-Lites Of Seaside Heights

By GRAYCE RYCKMAN and MERLE HOLSTIN
Frontier 5-1779 or Frontier 5-3718

The meeting of the Civil Defense Group of Seaside Heights was held last Tuesday at Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heptig's house. Mr. George Powell, assistant director of CD, was able to be with us to explain how plans are shaping up generally and what we will need to do in the future. In the near future, the person who has volunteered to be a Warden for your block will be around to call on you and let you know what is being done. Two or three more Wardens are needed and if you feel you can help, (it does not involve much), stop by and see Jack, our area warden, at 5359 Bindewald.

In a recent column we told of Mrs. Leopold Rock's bout with pneumonia. We'd like to say now that she is much better and to publicly note the wonderful help she received from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Olive Bellemare. Besides caring for Mrs. Rock, two weeks, day and night, Mrs. Bellemare had the care of the two foster-children, both under a year of age.

Are you looking for a nice puppy for your children? You can get one (for free) at 5220 Vanderhill road, Mr. Howard Hatfields. They are healthy, MOSTLY Collie, and you can have your choice, male or female.

The Filigianos of Bindewald, Joan, Fred, and Jerry, expect to leave on their vacation August 30th or thereabouts. They promise a full report of their venture on return. Bon Voyage, you lucky people!

This past week seemed to be one for injuries and illnesses. Among our injured are Bobbie Holstin, age 13, of Zakon Road. He is the boy who has perhaps seen hobbling around the tract on crutches. He cut his right foot quite badly on a broken bottle out in "the field" as he was playing.

Also injured was Sharon Herbst, 9, of Vanderhill road. She somehow managed to drop one of those 33-pound building blocks on the middle finger of her left hand. Doris, her mother, said she didn't think she would go that far to keep from doing dishes.

And, injured in one of those "home accidents" was Mrs. Peter Jurisich of Bindewald Road, who suffered a deep gash in her thumb, from the lid of a tin can.

All of the illnesses seemed to be about the same condition—sore throat, slight fever, poor appetite. Apparently a touch of tonsillitis. Affected were little Billy Butler and Bobbie Priestly of Vanderhill Road, and my own, Judy Ryckman of Bindewald.

So you have your troubles? But does it top this? Thursday night when Joe and Esther Johnson were working, some part of their bathroom plumbing broke, and before it was discovered every room and closet in their house, 5233 Bindewald was covered with water. Arriving home at 3 a.m., Esther worked rapidly until 5 a.m. mopping, drying, and cleaning floors and furniture.

To close this column with a more cheerful aspect, we borrowed a little poem from Matt Weinstock, Daily News. By Marguerite Stanley.

I've measured the width—both ways—of me.
And counted the wrinkles, as anyone could;
There's only my disposition left
And it had better be good.
